TO-DAY'S ENGAGEMENT.

Lyons & Cohen cash sale at 10 A. M.

LOCAL NEWS.

It is reported that the King's boat-house is to be enlarged.

The "Feniens" were out bending to the oar yesterday morning.

Dr. A. McWayne is having his office on Alakea street, enlarged.

The regular meeting of the trustees of the Library Association was held last night.

The flag decorations at the skating rink last Tuesday evening were tastefully arranged.

Company A of the King's Own under Captain Nowlin went through a vigorous drill last night.

Fire Company No. 2 held their regular meeting last night. No business of importance was transacted.

The building to be used as the children's department at the Kakaako leper settlement is nearing completion.

The Circus band will parade the principal streets at three o'clock this afternoon in a carriage drawn by six horses.

Horses are allowed to run loose around town, threatening the limbs and even the lives of the numerous children that flock the streets.

At night vicious dogs are allowed to take possession of Nuuanu street opposite Queen Emma's late residence, and woe unto the unhappy passer-by.

Captain Tell and Officer Dole remained at Molokai in charge of the prisoners who committed the murder at that place last Friday morning.

The person who indulges in the pastime of entering other people's houses need entertain no apprehensions of danger—only the police are on the lookout.

The King's rowing crews are expected a six oared scull by the Mariposa which they claim will be the means of placing them on the same standing as the Myrtles.

The Circus will open again to night. After the two days rest the troupe is in excellent condition and is ready to exert themselves more than ever to give satisfaction and please all.

The subscriptions toward the coming regatta, so far, have not come up to expectations. If the people expect to pass a pleasant day on the 16th inst., to avoid disappointments more liberal donations are suggested.

Owing to the unavoidable absence of some of their men the M. B. C. Baseball Club claim that they were at a most serious disadvantage during their last game with the Unknowns. The bad plays of some outside men causing the reported results.

The local in yesterday's issue of the PRESS, stating that the Mariposa would lay over until the 22d inst, was incorrect. Instead of leaving on the 15th of December the steamer will remain here from the 8th until the 22d of December, when she will take the first Colonial mail to San Francisco under the new system.

Between six and seven o'clock last evening a pitiful incident occurred. A native, named Pali, who has been considered deranged in mind for some time past, was seen wandering around Fort and Hotel streets, uttering incoherent sentences and using abusive language. He was followed by a troop of yelling boys.

At the Police Court yesterday A. Hewitt was fined $4 and $4.40 costs on a charge of common nuisance. He allowed his dog to run at large; Ah Hin was fined $8 for attempting to carry on an express business without a license; Napoleon, a well known character, was sentenced to hard labor for ten days and $2 costs, for drunkenness.

Preparations are being made in the store formerly occupied by the Honolulu Bazar, for the occupancy of Messrs. Hollister & Co., who expect to move their Nuuanu street store to that place within a few weeks. They will occupy the whole of the second and third floors of the building as store rooms, besides half of the ground floor.

New laws regulating towage in Honolulu harbor and vicinity have been issued by the order of the Minister of the Interior to the effect that the signal for tug service from any vessel in the offing will be the setting of her national ensign at the fore. The tug is not to leave her berth without the pilot is on board, and is not supposed to go more than one mile beyond the bell buoy and never more than two miles, except on special agreement or when answering a signal of distress. In towing outward, with winds east to north, the tug will cast off when well clear of the passage. With winds west to south, or in calm weather the tug will not cast off until a good offing is reached. In all cases the Master of the tug will use his own discretion and is alone responsible.

Mr. P. McInerney has enlarged his boot and shoe store on Fort street by taking out the partition between his place and the next store. The rapid increase of Mr. McInerney's trade since he opened his store a few months ago has necessitated the change.

The Premier Mr. Gibson was nearly washed overboard when the tug was going out past Coco Head, day before yesterday a heavy sea swept the decks clean, but a native grabbed Mr. Gibson and held him down as it were. But for the kanaka where would the country be?

No further damage, than the severe scorching of the forward part of the hull was sustained by the schooner Emma. The sails which were stowed away in the hold only received a thorough wetting. They are now being dried and the vessel put in proper order.

The question as to who will carry off the laurels in the steeple chase now being run at the circus, seems to be the cause of considerable rivalry among the riders. The prize consisting of gold coin, the amount not being known, is to be awarded to the winner of the best three races out of a series of five.

The newly formed rowing club, composed of the blacksmiths and machinists of the Honolulu Iron Works have decided that their match will be rowed in six oared gigs. The course has been decided upon and will be around spar buoy. The boats to be used in this race will be from the King's boat house.

As the steamer Iwalei was moored near the P. M. S. S. wharf last evening an Hawaiian tumbled between the steamer and the dock when the steamer was lying about 3 feet from the wharf. The men were pulling the steamer in. It was a close shave for the native as he just got out when the steamer jammed against the wharf.

Owing to want of proper attention given to the condition of the bridge near the Waikiki road an accident, the particulars are in yesterday's issue, happened Tuesday afternoon to Doctor Webb and his wife. Through some miracle both escaped uninjured; the wonder is that they were not seriously or fatally hurt. Have the necessary repairs been made yet?

Yesterday afternoon a horse belonging to Col. Judd run away with a brake at Waikiki. The horse started from the vicinity of Mr. Cartwright's place and ran to the road and thence along King street toward town. There was no body in the brake at the time. The vehicle was turned over twice and was pretty badly smashed. It was a sad affair and copious tears were shed within sight of the disaster. It was Keats who wrote:

"Shed no tear, O, shed no tear,
The sun will shine another year."

An amusing incident happened on the corner of Fort and Hotel streets yesterday about noon time. Captain I. Bray of the Morning Star, had left a camera in charge of Jimmie Williams, the photographer, some time ago. Before taking the instrument away it was tested, in doing so the apparatus was brought out on the sidewalk, facing towards "Dodd's". It was not long before a number of persons assembled in anticipation of having their "phiz" taken, and the characteristic positions and poses taken by them was somewhat alarming. Their hopes were doomed to disappointment, however, and after standing in the scorching sun for something like a quarter of an hour they melted away. Some people never get tired of paying tribute to "human vanity."

At about seven o'clock yesterday morning just as the prison gang, who work at the palace, were beginning their labors, one of the Chinese prisoners, Pap Sui, was found to be missing. Search was immediately instituted but no trace of the fugitive could be found. The following is a correct description of the man: Black hair, no queue; height five feet four and a half inches; scarred on the forehead, between the eyes and the right cheek, also three scars close above the navel; a mole on the right side of the neck; upper teeth projecting; about twenty-four years of age. The prisoner was sentenced at Lahaina for robbery. A reward of twenty dollars is offered for his return or capture. This makes the second Chinese convict now at large; the other made his escape from Oahu prison, on the morning of September 27th last. He was known as Ah Woon, and is about twenty-one years of age.

About quarter to nine last evening quite a sensation was caused by the cry of "haul in." The cause of the trouble is as follows: A respectable married young man who is employed in the Foundry, calling on a friend, found the wife lying on the floor in a sad plight. He attempted to solace the woman, who told him that her husband had just been beating her. While talking the matter over, the husband entered and thinking the positions of the couple as rather compromising and threatened to shoot the young man, who deciding discretion the better part of valor made hasty retreat over a convenient fence. The model husband, foaming over with virtuous indignation, gave chase and caused an alarm which led to the arrest. The prisoner was released immediately upon reaching the Station House. The officials were quite indignant over the arrest and threatened to arrest the party who caused so much trouble without any cause whatever. The name of the loving husband is Manuel Perry, a Portuguese who has been arrested a number of times for cruelty to his wife.

The marriage of Mr. Charles Lucas to Miss M. Bannister took place at the residence of Mr. W. Auld at Palama, at half past eight last night. The Bishop Hermann assisted by Father Leonore had the most pleasant task of tying the knot of connubial bliss. With the compliments of Princess Liliuokalani, the band delivered its choicest selections. The bride wore a cream colored satin dress with an extravagant trail, her head was tastefully dressed with a most becoming wreath of orange blossoms. There were present a large number of kamaainas that have been together for a long time in Honolulu. The illuminated grounds reminded one of the tales in the Arabian Nights. The presents were both numerous and costly. Owing to the want of room we are with many regrets compelled to cut our report short suffice to say that the celebration was a brilliant success.

They say: that the officers were not to blame in any way for the Molokai tragedy; that the biggest thing in Hawaii is the national debt; that if extravagance is continued it will, in a few years, be as large as the capital building at Washington; that the first transfer under the new mail service will take place on the 22nd of December next; that the stranding of shows in Honolulu is over, perhaps; that the best citizens are generally hid under a bushel; that the new proposition for street work ought to be looked into; that the new system of monthly settlements is finding but little favor—with those who have to pay; that a swimming bath would pay in Honolulu; that the girls and boys are all getting married; that the new mail service will necessitate the opening of a broker's shop to give the English "bob," of the tourist, Hawaiian value; that the coming of another opera troupe would cause some of the local musical critics to go raving mad; that the circus pays because it suits the humor of Honolulu; that the mustache of Charlie McCarthy's young-man-Dan is a growing success in spite of adverse caresses; that the thunders of the politicians will precede their intellectual lightning; that the don't-give-it-away policy of Honolulu society is whispered into everybody's ear; and that the most sarcastic thing of the Kingdom is silence under a popular charge of official dishonesty.

A CORRECTION.

In justice to the agent, Mr. John Montgomery, of the Medical Work which is offered at a reduced price at T. G. Thurm's Fort street store, the undersigned would state that this lot was purchased at a sacrifice, on account of being somewhat injured, and had to be rebound. The reduction casts no reflections on established agents subscription prices.
